

Absconding Policy

1. Objective

This policy is laid to address employees who abscond from duty in Innovative Retail Concepts Private Limited (IRCPL).

2. Coverage

All absconding employees at IRCPL.

3. Salient Features

- Any employee failing to report for duty without any notification for more than three working days will be considered as absconding.
- Show Cause Notice (SCN) will be issued to the employee for the continuous absence; if he/she fails to respond within the turnaround time, employment shall stand terminated.
- Date of termination will be the turnaround date of SCN.
- It is manager's responsibility to inform concerned HR about continuous absenteeism of employee.
- Employee will not be eligible for any encashment and service certificate from company. Only the salary will be credited against the total number of days worked during the month after deducting the notice period days as per your employment contract.
- The salary is recovered if the company assets are due with absconded employees.
- If the employee wants to rejoin after long absenteeism, he/she has to provide the explanation to HR and reporting manager in writing. If there is any discrepancy found in the explanation, management has the right to intervene and investigate.
- Rejoining will be considered on case to case basis.

4. Procedure

- If an IRCPL employee remains absent from duty without any information for more than three working days, manager will inform HR through mail and verbally.
- HR will send a Show Cause Notice (SCN) on the 4th day of the employee's absconding through mail and registered post to employee's personal E-mail ID and permanent address provided during joining. SCN will have the turnaround time of seven working days.
- If the employee fails to respond to the SCN within 07 working days from the date of issuance of the SCN (considering 4th day as the first day) then on the 8th working day a termination letter has to be sent to employee's personal E-mail ID and permanent address through registered post
- Once the termination letter is sent, HR will deactivate all the access from mails, portals
- If employee responds before or after issuing termination, management retains the right to review the case and thereafter accept or reject the request for rejoining.
