

SATURDAY WORKING POLICY FOR CORPORATE EMPLOYEES

1. Objective

This policy is laid to address Saturday working for employees in corporate functions in Bengaluru at Innovative Retail Concepts Private Limited (IRCPL).

2. Coverage

All employees in Corporate.

3. Salient Features

We are essentially in the retail business, and week-ends is peak business for us. Therefore, everyone in the regions works six day weeks, and by rotation, people work on Sundays as well.

While corporate functions operate to a slightly different rhythm and don't necessarily directly deal with peak business traffic on weekends, it is important to demonstrate support for our colleagues in the regions by being available for any support they may need.

Therefore the following shall apply to employees in corporate functions in Bengaluru:

- All employees in corporate functions will be available on Saturdays on email and phone. They need not necessarily come in to the office. It goes without saying that the spirit behind this needs to be respected and the availability needs to be genuine and not token
- Any individual/function head/lead is free to schedule a meeting in office on a Saturday if there is a need for it, and everyone who is invited for the meeting is expected to honor the request and join the meeting in person.
